We understand, however, that some clients may have unique needs and/or goals which require a different approach to pursuing name/gender changes on their identity documents.

We encourage clients to make an appointment with staff from the Whitman-Walker Legal Services Program to discuss their specific situation and goals. We know this can be a daunting process and we are happy to guide clients through the name and gender change steps. Together, we can create a name/gender change strategy that fits each client's unique needs. ## I. OBTAINING A COURT ORDER FOR CHANGE OF NAME

You have the right to change your name so long as you are not doing so for fraudulent purposes (i.e., to evade creditors/child support orders or to escape criminal charges) or in a way that interferes with the rights of others.

You must obtain a court order recognizing your new name to legally change your name in Virginia. The first step toward receiving the court order is to file an Application for Change of Name with the circuit court of the county or city in which you live.<sup>1</sup> Once you have successfully filed the application, the court will either mail you the original signed court order recognizing your new legal name or if the court chooses to schedule a hearing, present it to you in person after the hearing.

Many cities/counties in VA have distinct requirements for individuals wishing to change their name, including a city/county specific application and court order that the client must complete in a very particular way. YOU MUST check the website for the civil circuit court in the county or city where you live for specific instructions. If none is provided, call the civil clerk's office for your city or county and ask what you must do. A list of circuit courts and their addresses is available online at <http://www.courts.state.va.us/courts/circuit.html>.

A. What To File / Where to File:

1. File a completed and notarized Application for Change of Name

Each county in Virginia decides what forms and processes it wants to use for this process. It is always a good idea to contact the clerk of your county circuit court to confirm which form is required.

Some courts like Arlington and the City of Alexandria use the general state form and instructions, which are available here: <http://www.courts.state.va.us/forms/circuit/cc1411.pdf>. This application must be typed, which is something you can do on the website before you print the document.

Some courts require that you use their local version of this form, such as Fairfax County (<http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/courts/circuit/pdf/CCR-A-160.PDF>) and Prince William County (<http://www.pwcgov.org/government/courts/circuit/Pages/Name-Change.aspx>). Please note that Prince William County requires that the petition be prepared from scratch and does not accept pre-filled forms.

In all cases, you must sign the Application for Change of Name with your current legal name in the presence of a notary public. Whitman-Walker

Health offers this service for free at 1701 14th Street NW, Washington, D.C. Notary public services may be available for a small fee at a courthouse or bank. You should call in advance to confirm.

2. Submit a proposed (unsigned) Court Order

The Virginia State Court website does not provide a Court Order form online. Some counties/cities have their own Court Order forms and you should check the website of your local court or call the clerk to confirm which form to use. You may be able to pick up and complete the form when you go to the court to file your application for a name change.

3. Publication

There is no publication requirement for adults seeking a name change in Virginia. Minors seeking a name change may need to fulfill a publication requirement only if one or both parents/legal guardians are unknown, unaccountable, or otherwise not present to consent to the name change. See item 8 below for more information related to minors.

4. Fees & Fee Waivers

When you file the application, the clerk will collect the required fee, which varies depending on the city or county where you live. Appendix B lists filing fees for some counties, but you can also check the website of your local circuit court for filing fee information. Note that certain jurisdictions only accept cash or money order.

Depending on your income, you may qualify for a waiver of the filing fee. Complete the “Petition for Proceeding in Civil Case without Payment of Fees or Costs” (Form CC-1414: <http://www.courts.state.va.us/forms/circuit/cc1414.pdf>) and attach any financial statements or other information supporting your need for the fee waiver.

5. Double check that you have fulfilled all of the filing requirements in your city/county

Remember, each city/county may have its own unique forms and rules, so it is important to double check your documents before filing. This includes: the number of copies you must file with the Court; whether to include a certified copy of your current birth certificate; whether to include a proposed court order or a self-addressed stamped envelope; the amount of the filing fee; whether you may submit your filing by mail; and how to obtain additional certified copies of the court order. This is often available online, calling the civil circuit clerk is usually very helpful.

6. Pay in advance for additional certified copies of your court order

Unless you request additional copies of the order, you will usually receive only one original court order signed by the judge. You will need several more certified copies of the court order in order to support later name and gender changes with other agencies. We suggest you request at least 5 certified copies total. You can arrange for these copies at the time you submit your filing or purchase them after the order is granted. Courts charge a small fee for each additional copy requested and you must submit this fee in advance. Appendix B (Fee Schedule) lists some of these costs.

7. If a Hearing is Scheduled and Medical Documentation is Requested

While not required or prohibited by Virginia law, some judges will schedule a hearing, which means the petitioner must appear in court and provide more information to the judge about why they want to change their name. If this happens, you should contact Whitman-Walker Legal Services. The judge may ask you to bring a letter from a medical or mental health provider verifying your transition – a letter that is very similar to the ones used to obtain a gender marker change on a passport or Social Security record. Below is a sample letter that has been successful for our clients. If you desire more privacy, you can ask your provider to make the letter more general about why you want the name change. You should submit your letter to the Court as soon as requested – either before or at the hearing. Sometimes the judge will cancel a hearing and grant the name change order if the judge receives the letter in advance of the hearing.

8. Legal Name Changes for Minors

There is a separate name change petition that minors and their parents/legal guardians must complete and submit to their local court. Many courts utilize an application provided by the State (Form CC-1427: <http://www.courts.state.va.us/forms/circuit/cc1427.pdf>), but some counties may have a specific county form. Contact the clerk of your local court to determine which form you need to use.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Minors must have the consent of both parents/legal guardians in order to obtain a legal name change. If one parent/guardian is unknown or not present to sign the petition, the judge may, in his/her discretion, require the present parent/guardian to publish the name change in a local newspaper. We encourage minors and their parents/legal guardians to speak to an attorney before pursuing the name change of a transgender minor because special legal issues surround this decision (such as when legal or physical custody is shared between two or more parents/legal guardians).

B. Next Steps: Receiving the Court Ordered Name Change

After you have filed the application, paid the required fee, and filed all other required documentation (if any), the court will process your application. Processing time varies depending on the court. For example, if there is no hearing, Arlington and Fairfax County each estimate that you will receive the signed order in about 3 weeks; Prince William County estimates a wait time of 4-6 weeks.

If there is a hearing, you should receive a copy of the court order immediately following the hearing if the judge grants the order. (See section (A)(7) above regarding hearings and requests for medical documentation).

If you did not arrange in advance for the delivery of additional certified copies of the court order, you may go to the courthouse at any time during business hours to request and pay for additional certified copies.

NOTE: Fairfax County may mail a copy of the signed name change court order to the department of vital records of your birth state. Because of this, you may receive a notice from your birth state explaining that more information, an application, and/or a fee is required before your birth record can be updated. Do not be alarmed – this notice from your birth state is an automatic response to the information sent to them by Fairfax County.

II. CHANGING YOUR NAME & GENDER WITH THE SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION

A. Name Change

Once you have obtained a court order recognizing your name change, you must report your name change to the Social Security Administration (SSA). You must change your name with SSA before updating the name on your VA ID.

The SSA office may provide you with a printout reflecting your name change. The VA DMV may or may not accept the SSA printout to change your name on your VA driver's license or ID card. We recommend that you wait for your updated Social Security card to arrive in the mail (approx. two weeks) before going to the DMV.

To apply for a name change with SSA, you will need:<sup>2</sup>

1. Application for a Social Security Card (Form SS-5: <http://www.ssa.gov/online/ss-5.pdf>) that includes your changed name;
2. Certified copy of the Court Order for Change of Name;
3. An identification document, such as an unexpired driver's license or state-issued identity card, or an unexpired U.S. Passport card (it is okay if your ID document includes your former name); and
4. Proof of U.S. citizenship or lawful immigration status, such as a passport, birth certificate or immigration documentation.

You should take these documents in person to your nearest Social Security office during normal business hours. You may also mail these materials to your nearest SSA office. You may find your nearest Social Security office here:

<http://www.socialsecurity.gov/regions/>.

Following your visit to SSA, you will receive a new Social Security card in the mail with your changed name and the same social security number.

B. Gender Change

Although your Social Security card does not show a gender marker, other government agencies look to your Social Security records to verify your gender. For example, if your gender marker on your tax or employment records does not match your Social Security records, SSA may contact your employer to question the difference, thereby disclosing your transgender status. Changing your gender marker with SSA will help you avoid this situation.

To apply to change your gender on your Social Security record, you will need all of these items:

1. A completed application for a Social Security Card (Form SS-5: <http://www.ssa.gov/online/ss-5.pdf>);
2. An identification document, such as an unexpired driver's license or state-issued identity card, or an unexpired U.S. Passport (it is okay if your ID document includes your former name/gender). If you do not have one of these documents or cannot get a replacement within 10 working days, the SSA may accept other documents that show your new legal name and biographical information, such as a U.S. military identity card, Certificate of Naturalization, employee identity card, certified copy of medical record (clinic, doctor, hospital), health insurance card, Medicaid card, or school identity card/record. If you are not a U.S. citizen, SSA must see your current U.S. immigration document(s) and your foreign passport with biographical information or photograph. Note: SSA will not accept a birth certificate, hospital souvenir birth certificate, Social Security card stub, or a Social Security record as evidence of identity; and
3. One of the following items to prove your transition:
  - a. Passport: A valid, 10-year U.S. passport with the updated gender marker (NOTE: passports with less than 10 years of validity will not be accepted); or
  - b. Birth Certificate: An original, state-issued birth certificate reflecting your updated gender marker; or
  - c. Court Order: An original court order directing legal recognition of change of gender; or

- d. Doctor Letter: A signed letter on letterhead from your licensed doctor stating that you have had appropriate clinical treatment for gender transition and including the following language (see next page for model)

You should take these materials in person to your nearest SSA office, which you can find here: <https://secure.ssa.gov/ICON/main.jsp>.

Selected Virginia offices include:

Arlington: 1401 Wilson Blvd, Suite 200, Arlington 22209

Alexandria: 6295 Edsall Road, Plaza 500, Suite 190, Alexandria 22312

Fairfax: 11212 Waples Mill Rd., Suite 105, Fairfax 22030

You will receive a new Social Security Card in the mail with the amended name in approximately two weeks and your Social Security account will reflect your preferred gender marker.

III. CHANGING YOUR NAME & GENDER WITH THE VA DEPARTMENT OF MOTOR VEHICLES (DMV)

If you need to change BOTH your NAME and GENDER marker on your driver's license, it is most efficient to change them both at the SAME TIME at the DMV. We understand that certain clients will only need/want to change one or the other, so we have provided separate instructions for each change below. If you are changing both items at the same time, follow the instructions for changing each separately and take all required forms of evidence and documents to the DMV and present them to a Service Center Manager. Please note that all identification credentials will be mailed to your listed address.

Virginia does not allow individuals who cannot prove their lawful presence in the U.S. to apply for driver's licenses, learner's permits, or ID cards.<sup>3</sup> If you have temporary authorization to be in the U.S. and can present a valid legal presence document without an expiration date, you can obtain a limited duration license (valid for 1 year). For acceptable documents by status, visit:

http://www.dmv.state.va.us/webdoc/pdf/accept\_doc\_status.pdf

1. How to Change Your Name with the VA DMV<sup>4</sup>

** If you do not already have a driver's license, learner's permit or ID card, you will also need to bring original versions of the required documents listed below:

<sup>5</sup> The SSA office may provide you with a printout reflecting your name change. The VA DMV may or may not accept the SSA printout to change your name on your VA driver's license or ID card. We recommend that you wait for your updated Social Security card to arrive in the mail (approx. two weeks) before going to the DMV.

social worker, psychologist, or professional counselor. It certifies that their “practice includes treatment and counseling of persons with gender identity issues, including the applicant” and that in the practitioner’s “professional opinion, the applicant’s gender identity is [male or female].”

Once you submit your completed DL-17 form, allow at least 5 days for processing. You should receive a letter in the mail at the address you listed on the application approving your request for a gender change. You will take that letter and the documents listed in the Name Change section above to any VA DMV customer service center to apply for a corrected or new license, learner’s permit or ID card reflecting the proper gender marker. You should be prepared to take a new photo and to pay the relevant fee. See Appendix B for the fee schedule by county.

IV. CHANGING YOUR NAME & GENDER ON YOUR U.S. PASSPORT

If you are a citizen of the United States, you can easily apply for a U.S. Passport that reflects your new name and gender. You will need a court order for a name change and a letter from your physician certifying to your transition. The language of the letter is identical to the language of the sample Social Security letter above. Please see our Passport Guide, entitled “Information on Obtaining or Changing a Passport for Transgender Clients” for detailed information on how to obtain an updated passport.

This change can be made at either an earlier or later stage in the name/gender change process. If you have plans for international travel, you should prioritize this change and may want to consider completing this step earlier in the process. If you do not have a Passport and do not intend to travel internationally, you do not need to obtain a Passport.\

V. CHANGING YOUR NAME WITH THE SELECTIVE SERVICE

A. Female to Male (FTM) Individuals

If you were designated female at birth, you do not have to register with the Selective Service, even if you have had sexual reassignment surgery.<sup>7</sup> However, if you are applying for federal financial aid, grants, loans, or other benefits as a male, you may be asked to provide proof that you are exempt from the Selective Service. To obtain such proof, you should request a Status Information Letter (SIL) from the Selective Service.

To request a SIL that shows you are exempt, you can either download a SIL request form (http://www.sss.gov/PDFs/SilForm\_Instructions.pdf) or call them at 1-888-655-1825. The SIL request form requires female to male individuals to identify as such and attach a copy of a birth certificate showing the birth-assigned sex. If you have already amended the sex on your birth certificate, attach any proof you have to that affect. This service is free and the exemption letter you will receive does not specify why you are exempt so it will not force you to ‘out’ yourself moving forward. Once you receive your SIL, keep it in your files.<sup>8</sup>

B. Male to Female (MTF) individuals:

If you were designated male at birth, you must register for the Selective Service if you are between the ages of 18 and 26, even if you have had sexual reassignment surgery. You may register online at <http://www.sss.gov/default.htm> or you may complete and mail a “mail-back” registration form available at any post office. In the unlikely event that the draft is resumed and you receive an order to report for examination or induction, you may file a claim for exemption from service.<sup>9</sup>

While you do not need to notify the Selective Service of a change in gender, you are obligated to inform them of a change in name. To notify the Selective Service of your name change you must fill out Form SSS 2 (technically a change of address form), available at your local post office. You must attach a certified copy of the court order changing your name.

VI. CHANGING YOUR NAME AND/OR GENDER WITH UNITED STATES CITIZENSHIP AND IMMIGRATION SERVICES (USCIS)

If you are a foreign-born individual who intends to apply for legal status with USCIS, who has already applied for legal status with USCIS, or who has already been granted some form of legal status here in the United States, Whitman-Walker Legal Services can help you obtain immigration documents (such as green cards, work authorization cards or naturalization certificates) that match your changed name and/or gender. Please contact Whitman-Walker Health Legal Services at 202-939-7627 for further information.

VII. CHANGING YOUR NAME AND/OR GENDER WITH YOUR INSURANCE CARRIERS, CREDITORS, AND OTHERS

A. Insurance Concerns

You should inform your insurance companies (including health, property, auto, and life) immediately after you receive your court order for a name change. They may require that you submit a certified copy of your court order for a name change.

You should update your health insurance company about your name change but not necessarily a gender change. Note that it is important that your health insurance company's records match your doctor's records (name and gender) in order to avoid confusion and delay or a denial of claims. Your doctor may opt to continue to file claims reflecting your sex assigned at birth.

If you have changed your gender and encounter issues with your health insurance company due to medical care related to your gender, contact Whitman-Walker Legal Services for assistance.

B. Banks, Creditors, and Financial Institutions

You must inform your banks, any creditors, and any financial institutions where you hold an account when you legally change your name. You will most likely be asked to provide a certified copy of the court order.

C. Other Legal Documents

After you receive a court order changing your name, we recommend that you change your name in any legal documents in which you are named. These include your lease, wills, powers of attorney, advanced health directive, deeds, etc., or such documents that name you as a party. Changing your name on these documents ensures that your rights and powers in the document remain intact.

Some clients also want to change their name and/or gender marker in their education records, such as high school or college transcripts and diplomas. Whitman-Walker Legal Services can assist with these changes.

VIII. OBTAINING A COURT ORDER FOR CHANGE OF GENDER

A. Is a Court Order for a Gender Change a Necessary Part of the Name/Gender Change Process?

You do not need a Court Order for a Gender Change to change your gender marker on your driver's license or ID card. Depending on the laws in the state where you were born, a court order for a gender change may be necessary to amend your birth certificate to reflect your new gender. If you were born in VA, you will need a court order for a gender change to amend your VA birth certificate to reflect your new gender (discussed in detail below).

Whitman-Walker Legal Services staff is available to discuss the court order process with you and determine whether a court order for a gender change is necessary to achieve your name/gender change goals.

B. How Do I Obtain a Court Order for a Change of Gender?

Whitman-Walker Legal Services is limited in its ability to represent individuals who want to obtain a court order for a gender change in VA where court rules prohibit us from assisting clients in writing their own petitions. We can refer clients to attorneys in VA who are able to assist you with the process. Below we give some general details on obtaining a court order for a gender change.

To obtain a court order for a gender change, you must petition your local circuit court for an order signed by a judge that acknowledges your gender change. Note that in Virginia there is no court-issued form and procedure for changing your gender. As a result, you or your attorney must draft an individual petition seeking a court ordered gender change.

Virginia law offers little guidance on what is required, stating only that a court order for a gender change may be issued "when the sex of an individual has been changed by medical procedure." Virginia courts are not specific about what medical procedure is required; the court reviews each petition on a case-by-case basis and requires only that your doctor certify that the procedure changed your gender. You or your attorney should be sure to obtain a letter from your doctor affirming that he/she has performed "a medical procedure that has changed [client's name]'s sex" and include that letter in the filing with the court.

There may be a number of additional rules that would apply to filing a court order for a gender change depending on where you live – such as the number of copies to file with the Court, filing fees, etc. You or your attorney should call the local Circuit Court and verify what is required to file a petition for an order for a gender change.

IX. CHANGING YOUR NAME & GENDER ON A BIRTH CERTIFICATE

A. Birth Certificates Issued in a State Other than VA

The law in the state that issued your birth certificate (the state where you were born) governs the rules for amending your birth certificate. Some states allow you to amend your birth certificate with relative ease, while others will not amend birth certificates at all. Many states require that an applicant for an amended birth certificate present a court order for a gender change (issued in the state where you live) before that state is willing to amend the gender marker on a birth certificate. Of the states that will amend your birth certificate, some insist that the information on your original birth certificate (your name and gender at birth) remain on the amended birth certificate, which will simply make note of the amendment. The Office of Vital Records in the state where you were born can give you more information about what is required to amend your birth certificate to reflect your new name and gender and what an amended birth certificate would look like. Whitman-Walker Legal Services staff may be able to assist you with amending a birth certificate issued outside of VA.

B. Birth Certificates Issued in VA

VA allows an individual to amend their VA issued birth certificate to reflect both a new name and gender. You may change your name on your VA birth certificate upon receipt of a court order changing your name. To change your gender on your VA birth certificate, you must present a court order for a gender change. Virginia will issue you a new birth certificate with your new name and/or gender. Your old name and/or gender will not appear on the newly issued birth certificate.

Submit the following to Virginia Department of Health, Division of Vital Records, Attn: Special Services Department, PO Box 1000, Richmond, VA 23218-1000:

- i. Certified copies of the Court Order for Change of Gender and/or Court Order for Change of Name;
- ii. Copy of your current identification card (this should include your changed name and/or gender);
- iii. A statement or application requesting that your birth certificate be amended; and
- iv. The required fee (see Appendix B for fee schedule)
